

Saturday quiz part two - answers

Current repertoire

1 Be bold and courageous.

Brave

2 Will ye go up the hill to gather herbs?

Mountain Thyme

3 It's a game of strategy.

Chess

4 Non-UK national doing the daily chores.

The Irish Washerwoman

5 Dance... but not on 11th Avenue.

12th Street Rag

6 The men became monks then there was a war then a party.

Lebuinus Ex Daventria

Back Catalogue

7 No time off for these 3 trumpeters.

Bugler's Holiday

8 A hundred thousand songs (literal translation).

Cent Mille Chansons

9 This brisk walk is not for adults.

Children's March (Over the Hills and Far Away)

10 A celebration at the wrong time of year.

Christmas in March

11 He wept and then there were no more mythical creatures.

Cry of the Last Unicorn

12 The title is in our name.

Dunbartonshire

13 Quite the opposite of the god of water.

Goddess of Fire

14 Travelling to the king of the pride's home.

Journey to the Lion's Castle

15 What DCB makes the best!

Music

16 There are far too many slides in this piece!

76 Trombones

17 There's no wonder why we enjoy this tribute to the big band leader.

Sir Duke

18 Never one to make a big fuss...this piece has many tricky rhythms.

Song and Dance

19 This piece is fantastic! Brilliant! Great!

S'Wonderful

20 It's the start of a new day.

To A New Dawn